

Public Engagement Network Advisory Group – For autistic people and people who have a learning disability

This leaflet is about our Public Engagement Network Advisory Group.

This group will be run by Choice Support.

Choice Support is a charity. It supports people with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs.

We are looking for autistic people and people who have a learning disability to join a new group.

Advisory Group

The group will be called the Public Engagement Network Advisory Group.

Or advisory group, for short.

What the group will do.

The advisory group will work with the Care Quality Commission

The Care Quality Commission check services like GPs, hospitals, and care homes to make sure they are giving good care to people.

They also share what they learn by writing reports.

This group will help us listen to people and hear what they think about their care.

How the group will meet.

The group will meet online using Zoom every 4 months.

You will be get vouchers for going to the meetings.

About the first meeting.

The first meeting will be about how you can tell the Care Quality Commission about your care.

How to join.
